This adventurous couple departed from their hometown of Konawa, Oklahoma on September 17, 1989 and headed east. Konawa is located just south of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Their journey, thus far, has taken them through southeast Oklahoma Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida and Alabama.

The Andersons arrival in Elba Thursday morning caused quite a commotion. Everyone who saw them called our office to tell us and they are joined by My Girl.

Also accompanying Glenda and Jack are their goat, Omega, their dogs, Tent Peg and Jughead Smith, and their bantam rooster and hen, Gypsy and Rose.

VIEWS FROM THE PRESSBOX BY RICKY MULARZ

Tournament time is always hectic for everyone involved and the past three weeks have been especially hectic around the Mularz home. Two weeks ago the 13-year-old Babe Ruth All-Stars and Dixie Minor All-Stars were competing at the same time at Andalusia and Geneva, while the fol-lowing weekend the Dixie Youth squad and the Girl's Softball All-Stars were both in Troy, the Girl's 12 and Under Stars were in Enterprise and I was in charge of the 14-15-Year-Old Babe Ruth Tourney in Elba. This past week I have been in Greenville three nights with the Dixie Youth Stars as they compete at District, which all adds up to quite a few of ballgames in a completed a four-game sweep past

It got so bad one day last week that when someone called the house looking for me she told him that the only time she could guarantee he'd get me was between 7:30 and 7:45 in the mornings, because I got out of the shower at 7:30 and didn't leave for work until 7:45! Oh well, at least my kids still call me "Dad."

DIXIE YOUTH STARS ARE BIG WINNERS

The Elba Dixie Youth All-Stars are still very much alive in post-season play as they have already won the Sub-District tournament in Troy and and closing wins by Elba: at the present time are undefeated at the District event over in Greenville At Sub-District, the All-Stars opened the tourney with easy wins over ELBA Highland Home 8-0 and Troy 19-5, but then lost one of their top players LUVERNE when Che Vaughan broke his foot and some expected the worst. The injury hurt the squad, but it just made it more determined and Elba whipped Lu- final inning to claim a wild 9-5 win verne 9-5 and Troy 5-2 to claim the Sub-District title with a perfect 4-0 record. Elba's play in Troy was highlighted by the booming bat of Rudy Free and the pitching of Jason Smith and Undrau Chism, while the entire in the opening inning to claim a wild 9-3 win over Luverne.

Luverne collected 3 runs on 3 hits in the opening inning to grab a quick team played as close to perfect as could be expected.

At District, Elba squeezed past Greenville 7-6 to win its opener and fol-third, when Elba's bats came to life lowed it with impressive wins over Enterprise 9-6 and Ozark 11-6. The and and knocked in 3 runs to pull Elba hitting has been the talk of the tourney in Greenville as the All-Stars even at 3-3. have ripped a total of 32 hits, including 7 home-runs. Just as outstanding has been the play of the defense, led by the glove of Todd Grantham at when Shandez Daniels drew a leadshortstop and Chris Hudson behind the plate

Elba still must win two games to qualify for the state tourney and it won't be easy; however, this All-Star team has proved it is something and I ond with no outs. for one will be with'em every pitch until they hang it up!

Despite the loss, the All-Stars deserve a tremendous amount of credit for 5 hits to score six runs and grab the their dedication and hard work. The team certainly didn't lose because of a win! lack of practice, because the players and coaches worked almost non-stop in preparation and were ready. It just wasn't their time!

TENNIS LESSONS LAY FOUNDATION FOR FUTURE

The Elba Department of Parks and Recreation and the United States Ten- the Elba squad. nis Association teamed up to sponsor tennis lessons last week for boys and girls ages 12 and under and it turned out that almost 20 kids came every day to learn about a game that hopefully will catch on in popularity in the Elba Leray Smedley, who promptly the adults; however, here in Elba the season is far from over as leagues for churches and boys are just getting ready to start. The Church League has been a solid league in years past, but the season was delayed because of obvious repairs needed to the flood-torn buildings, and at one time it was mentioned that the season may be cancelled. Those plans were scrapped and the churches will meet this week to see what will happen. I, for one, hope the churches get the league going and keep the fellowship alive that has been so

The boys played last year for the first time ever and the league was such a huge success that it will return next week. Baseball has been over for most of the boys ages 9-12 for a couple of weeks and many of the kids are wanting something to do. So, how about softball!

IN CLOSING

You can tell football season is getting close, because the rumors are already flying! Last week reports in Elba were that a junior 6'6", 305 pounds had enrolled in school, as had a Florida transfer that went 6'4", 270. I saw the 305 pounder and can vouch that he's a big'un, but I'll wait until practice starts before telling you any more!

Scarborough is back from race training in Italy

Bret Scarborough, formerly of Elba, recently returned from 5 weeks of racing and training in Italy. Headquarters for his trip was The Italian Cycling Center in Bassano del Grap-pa. While there he raced for the Italan cycling team G.S. Best/Scapin. He was coached by Francesco Fontana, Italian Cyclo-cross and Time Trial Champion. Bret raced twice a week while in Italy and brought home several trophies - - two 2nd places, a 4th place, and an 8th place. In these races he competed against 100 or more cyclists. When not racing, he spent approximately 6 hours a day training with his team and coach. Many of these hours were spent doing high altitude training in the Alps. One highlight of his trip included watching several stages of the Giro d'Italia and seeing professional racers such as Greg LeMond, Gianni Bugno, Charlie Mottet and others who just finished competing in the Tour de France. Now that he's back home Bret trains daily and logs at least 400 miles per week. Much of his training BRET SCARBOROUGH is done in this area as well as in Birmingham with his teammates.
